

Position: Manufacturing Research Associate/Assistant scientist

Last Date of Application: 25th July 2022

Tata Medical Center, Kolkata (TMCK) and the Cell & Gene Therapy Division of Intas Pharmaceuticals Ltd., have come together in an Academic industry collaborative project (called Clarion) to bring cutting edge Cellular Therapies for cancer patients. The National Biopharma Mission and Department of Biotechnology has funded key aspects of the project to enable delivery of CAR-T Cell Therapy to patients with refractory and relapsed Hematological cancers.

In this regard infrastructure, civil, clinical, laboratory and research are being setup at TMCK and are in various phases of execution.

To fulfill the above objectives TMC invites application for the position of :

Manufacturing Research Associate/Assistant scientist

Qualification and Experience:

PhD degree with required technical skills include cell culture (hands-on experience with culture of mammalian cells, both suspension and adherent, transfection, transduction) analytical methods like flow cytometry, ELISA, and qPCR.

Core Competencies

At least 2 years of work experience in the areas of cellular therapy development is desirable. A candidate with additional hands-on training experience on CliniMACS Prodigy/Cocoon platform will be given preference.

Behavioural

- Effective Communicator

Compensation:

- Rs 1.00 Lac subject to TDS

Joining: As early as possible

Please Email or post application by 25th July 2022 to:

Mr. Suvasish Mukherjee,
Head - Human Resource, Tata Medical Center,
14 MAR (E-W),
New Town, Kolkata – 700160.

Email : suvashish.mukherjee@tmckolkata.com
jeevan.kumar@tmckolkata.com
ajoy_kumar@intaspharma.com