Dear colleagues,

Continuing the tradition of organizing site-specific speciality conferences, the Department of Pathology, Tata Medical Center, Kolkata welcomes pathologists to attend this conference on Advances in Oncopathology of Breast Tumours (ADOPT).

Invited is a galaxy of national and international experts who are authors of well known textbooks in Breast Pathology including WHO Blue Book for Breast Tumours and constitute RCpath and ICCR dataset development groups. They will deliberate on issues ranging from diagnostic pitfalls to newer entities to updates in breast pathology with educative slide seminars.

This also presents a unique opportunity to network with peers and leaders in the field and for students to identify training opportunities.

E-poster presentations will be accepted.
The abstract submission deadline is 20th
January 2025.
